

MOVING WITHOUT HESITATION

"Do not hesitate to obey the Lord's command..." (Acts 10:20, ESV)

Hesitation may feel harmless, but Scripture shows it can cost us dearly. The spies in Numbers 13 hesitated and missed the Promised Land. Lot's wife looked back and lost her life. Yet Peter obeyed the Spirit's command without delay, and the gospel broke through barriers to reach the Gentiles. Obedience—even imperfect obedience—moves us into God's promises.

Where have I hesitated when God asked me to move?

What step of obedience is God asking me to take today?

How can I remind myself to act in faith, not fear?

Father, forgive me for hesitating, fearing the circumstances instead of You. Teach me to obey quickly and trust You fully.
